Mexico.

We have good reason to believe that there is a strong disposition among our national legislators to do something serious with Mexico. On the other hand, several Mexican journals have been suddenly censured by the Government—or as they of it as exists—to repress itself of California and Arizona, on the ground that the United States have not faithfully observed the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, in restraining the Indians resident on our soil from invading the territory of Mexico. It is possible that San Domingo may have to give way to our "Sister Republic." Certain it is, that sufficient causes exist to warrant an armed interference, and it will not require persuasion to put it in action.

In addition to the large pecuniary claims of American citizens, the state of chronic and hopeless anarchy to which Mexico is subject precludes the possibility of dealing with her as a Government. Her entire source of revenue is being siphoned off by the various factions, and she will insure security to the lives and property of foreigners resident in that country, or enable her to check and prevent lawless marauders from crossing the frontiers and preying on our citizens.

The same dire and fearful source of trouble that must be prevented. It is a belt of Mexican territory bordering the Rio Grande on which European goods are admitted duty free, and stored in large warehouses until the importers find a market for them. Large quantities are sent across the border, and enter the Southern markets in competition with articles on which our merchants have paid duty. Our Government has repeatedly and emphatically directed the attention of Mexico to the injuries inflicted by the contrabando, and asked that the act creating it should be repealed.
No official reply has been vouchsafed, so far as we know; but Mexican journals have virtually answered, by saying, that Mexico had a right to exact such laws as might be deemed advantageous to her interests, and that it is the duty of the United States to guard their own frontiers and prevent smuggling. It is also well known, that the Gila River section and the southern border of Arizona, have been plundered by Mexican robbers resident in Sonora, and that no attempt has been made to punish them by the authorities of that State. Recent outrages have been committed on American citizens, by the various armed banditti who form the routine of the several political leaders that are in arms against the Government of Juarez, while the troops of that individual are by no means sparing in their collection of forced contributions. With there were any possible hope that order could be restored and preserved by our uneasy neighbor, we could afford to wait a little longer; but all experience proves that no such result can ever be achieved. We shall either be compelled to march her, or establish a Protectorate, build railroads and telegraphs, found public schools, and develop her boundless resources, so that a sufficient revenue can be realized for carrying on the Government and paying the costs of protection. With plenty of public schools, and compulsory education, the Mexicans might, in another generation, be able to govern themselves; but they are not now, and never will be until educated for the business. We are Congress will adopt some vigorous measure in regard to that country.—S. F. Call, Herald.

THE POPE AND THE EMPEROR OF BRAZIL.

I am in a position to furnish you with authentic details of attempts made by the Emperor of Brazil to bring about a reconciliation between the Pope and the King of Italy. In the first interview which place between the Pope and the Emperor the latter spoke long, warmly and eloquently on the necessity of a reconciliation. The Pope, after listening very attentively to him, said that he was very much surprised to hear such language used to him by the Emperor of Brazil. "I am for the nonce," replied the Emperor, "only Don Pedro d'Alcantara who addresses your Holiness." "Very well, my dear Don Pedro d'Alcantara," said the Pope, "people say you are a philosopher, and I believe it. Consult your books, and when you find any one old and wise who writes with the night, bring the book to me and I shall have a precedent for the reconciliation you advocate." To the Emperor the Pope made himself still more disagreeable, and spoke for an hour, and then he said that he was very much astonished to hear him acting as Governor of his household by the Royal Palace at Naples, he being the daughter of King Francis I. of the Two Sicilies.
"Verily," said the Pope, "the Emperor could have discovered no one better qualified than you, Madame, to do him the honors of the Palace of your ancestors." The Emperor was very much hurt at this, and did not let the Pope again even to take leave of him. But the Emperor returned to see him immediately before his departure, and commenced once more on the subject of reconciliation, and even went so far as to say that he would bring Victor Emmanuel secretly to the Vatican. "I will get him to come here in a cab," he said, "and no one will know anything about it." The Pope was much irritated at this, and parted very coldly with the Emperor.
What is most original about this affair is that the King of Italy had never authorized Don Pedro to negotiate an interview with him and the Holy Father, much less to drive him in a cab to the Vatican. The Emperor of Brazil acted through proprio motu.—

FROM UTAH.

The District Attorney read letters from the United States Attorney-General, showing that no money could be furnished to pay fines, or court expenses, without a provision of Congress, and he, therefore, by order of the Attorney-General, moved to continue all the criminal cases until the second Monday in March. The continuance was granted.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 13.—The act to provide for the election of 140 delegates to a Constitutional Convention, passed by the Legislature of Utah as a State passed the House this instant, and the election is to be held on the 29th instant, and the convention to meet on February 1st.

The charge of Judge Strickland to the Grand Jury of the United States Court at Provo on Wednesday, published to-day, is pronounced by the  Tribune as the most just and able ever delivered in the Territory. It calls attention to the various assassinations and lawless mutilations on Henry Jones, Henry Jones, and others, some of whom died from these injuries, and declared that the punishment awarded in the case of Lewis, whose offense was being betrothed to a maiden carried by another man, that in another world they should become the servants of the dead victim thereafter forever, and that he should be made whole and have the maiden restored to him is not the legal putting in jeopardy of the jury must disregard it. Polygamy wires as the heads of families were permitted to prevent homicides and share the protection of the Government, and it is notorious that many continue to enter into polygamous relations and publicly conspired to do so. The Judge continued, "There is existing within this Territory a most peculiar and startling state of affairs. Polygamy is the most nothing compared with the bloody despotism which is forced and perpetuated among the people.
A despotism so strong that many are afraid to demand an examination or make inquiries about a murder committed at their own doors. I charge you with the duty of causing the death of that most terrible relic of barbarism, the blood attachment, the killing of an apostate, to save his soul.
That is legally murder."

SALT LAKE, Feb. 2.—A mass meeting of citizens was held this afternoon in Masonic Hall, to consider the despatch from Washington in regard to bail for prisoners charged with murder.

D. F. Walker, Esq., was Chairman. A. S. Gould and John Chillet, Secretaries of the meeting. Over 300 persons were present.

Resolutions were adopted that all the Gentile and liberal citizens have an abiding confidence in the honesty, integrity and ability of Judge M. B.
McKean, and believe him to be a faithful, impartial and incorruptible Judge, governed by a conscience sense of duty beyond all other considerations, whose whole course in Utah has been an honor to the Administration and pride to all really law-abiding citizens. Also, that the abundant Judge McKean, to admit persons accused of murder to bail, some of them most atrocious criminals, receives our hearty commendation, and there is abundant reason to believe such refusal of bail approved by all the so-called Gentile people of Utah.

It was ordered that these resolutions be immediately telegraphed to the President of the United States.

A resolution was also passed, that the President be respectfully requested to appoint successor to United States Attorney George C. Bates.

The greatest unanimity prevailed, the resolutions being adopted by acclamation.

A large number of leading citizens waited on Judge McKean this evening and extended their congratulations. The despatch from Washington that prominent Gentiles condemned Judge McKean is received there with surprise and indignation.

The number of families relieved by the charity which the whole country and the whole world have poured into Chicago is over 18,000. Of these about one-tenth are of American birth; the other nine-tenths are distributed among a great many nationalities.
